It is important that residents in the Fraser Coast Regional Council area make their own plans to evacuate their families and their pets should this be necessary You are responsible for your own safety and to have a plan that includes where to go, who to contact, what to bring, and how to get there.
Only those residents meeting one or more of the following criteria are eligible for help from the Fraser Coast Regional Council:

- those who are homeless,
- those with no transportation, insufficient transportation or who can no longer drive

The Council is asking residents who need evacuation help to register for planning purposes.
