Maryborough Recreation Trails

Leave the car behind and walk, cycle, skateboard or rollerblade along Maryborough's Recreation Trails.

There are a number of trails to choose from of varying distances although some sections may not be accessible by a person with a disability.

Experiences along the Trail include parks & botanic gardens, playgrounds, river boardwalk, heritage buildings, museums, art gallery, shopping, dining and glimpses into local and aboriginal history.

∠ SSIM T'NOD

- Relaxing by the river in majestic Queens Park, one of Australia's first botanic gardens
- View the last remnants of the original wharves at Maryborough Parklands - as well as stunning artwork
- Hearing the big bang of the historic time cannon
- Snagging a bargain at the city's famous weekly Heritage City Markets on Thursdays
- Seeing the best collection of "Old Queenslander" homes in the state along the 'Architectural Trail'
- Visiting Ululah Lagoon once a favourite spot for Aboriginal corroborees now a beautiful park
- Enjoy touring and local exhibitions at Gatakers Artspace

Shared paths

The paths along the Trail are shared and cyclists are required to give way.

Keep to the left-hand side and allow room for faster moving walkers, joggers, wheelchairs, rollerblades, scooters, skateboards and bikes to pass safely.

Dogs on leash

Keep your dog on a leash in all public places. Look for the signs indicating where dogs are allowed off leash or are prohibited.

To enjoy the benefits of Maryborough Recreation Trails

- Plan your route and pack lightly.
- If walking, wear a pair of comfortable shoes.
- Protect yourself from the sun with a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.
- · Carry drinking water.
- Obey all safety and warning signs.
