

Youth Mayoral Congratulatory Letter Application Form

The Fraser Coast Regional Council is proud of the achievements of so many of our young people in the Region and we want them to know by acknowledging their success and aspirations.

Please complete this form if you know of a young person within the Fraser Coast that the Mayor should acknowledge for their recent achievement.

- Examples of achievements could include, but are not limited to: excellence within school, sporting achievements, dedication to community and volunteering contributions or employment excellence.
