

Contravention of a Traffic Sign

Transport Operations (Road Use Management—Road Rules) Regulation 2009

FACT SHEET

Across the Fraser Coast Region, Council is responsible for the regulation of parking in accordance with the Transport and Operations Road Use Management Act and Local Law No 5 (Parking) 2011.

Contravention of an Official Traffic Sign

A person who contravenes an indication given by an official traffic sign commits an offence.

A local government may take proceedings for the imposition and enforcement of a penalty for a contravention relating to an official traffic sign installed by it.

Where should I park my vehicle?

Motorists should seek to find car parking on the road or in off-street car parks.

What if I park my vehicle there?

Council Parking Officers continue to conduct regular patrols across the region to ensure the safety of cyclists, motorists, and pedestrians.

Contravening an Official Traffic Sign will result in a parking infringement being issued in accordance with the State Traffic Law and Council's Local Laws.

On-the-spot fines may be issued.

How can I report unlawful parking?

If you are concerned about a vehicle parked unlawfully, please contact Fraser Coast Regional Council and a representative will investigate the matter.
