

Centenary Trees

FACTSHEET

A Lasting Legacy...

Fraser Coast residents who turn 100 can apply for a 'centenary tree' to be planted in their honour.

Tree Ceremonies

Centenary trees are planted in the Elizabeth Park Rose Garden in Maryborough, the Hervey Bay Botanic Gardens or the Tiaro Memorial Park.

Each tree planting is accompanied by a small celebration ceremony and the placement of a plaque with the centenarian's name and birth date.

How to Apply

Tree plantings are by application only and are free. Application can be made by the resident or by a friend or family member on their behalf.

The full Centenary Tree Policy is available on Council's website and sets out eligibility criteria and how to apply.

Requests for Centenary Trees should be submitted with two months' notice (late applications will still be processed, however they may not be able to be arranged by the date of the birthday).
